THE PICTORIAL EDITION OF

Arabian Nights Entertainments, translated from the Arabic, with copious Notes by E. W. Lane, illustrated by many hundred beautiful engravings from designs by Harvey, 3 large vols. 8vo. new cloth, £1. 8s (pub. £2. 2s)—Another copy, new calf gilt, £1. 16s Murray, 1859

An entirely new and improved edition of Mr. Lane's standard translation, containing many corrections and additions from an annotated copy, very carefully edited by his nephew, E. N. Poole.

This is the first time that the Arabian Nights have been faithfully rendered into any European Language. But the most important part of this New Edition is the Notes. Mr. Lane's residence in Egypt enabled him to procure so complete a knowledge of the language, manners, and customs of the Egyptian Arabs, that he has succeeded in giving us in a series of illustrative notes appended to the several chapters a faithful and as it were, a LIVING PICTURE of the East. His Notes on the Baths, on Dress and Furniture, on the Meals, Manner of Eating, on Hunting and Hawking, &c. are invaluable; his Historical Illustrations are well selected. In fact the Book is the most COMPLETE MANUAL of EASTERN MANNERS ever published, and throws more LIGHT on the MYSTERY of ARAB LIFE and MANNERS THAN PERHAPS ALL OTHER WORKS in OUR LANGUAGE."—Athenaeum.

NATURE-PRINTED PLANTS OF AUSTRIA.

737 PHYSIOTYPIA PLANTARUM AUSTRIACARUM: Der Naturabdruck in seiner Anwendung auf die Gefässpflanzen des Oesterreichischen Kaiserstaates, mit besonderer Berücksichtigung der Nervation in den Flachenorganen der Pflanzen von CONSTANTIN VON ETTINGSHAUSEN UND ALOIS POKORNY, 5 splendid vols. atlas folio, CONTAINING 500 LARGE PLATES exhibiting several thousand figures of plants all printed from the plants themselves, with a quarto vol. of descriptions, handsomely hf. bound morocco, gilt leaves, new, £18. 10s Wien, 1856

This is one of the most magnificent and valuable Botanical Works ever produced in any country; of the accuracy of the plates there can be no question, all of them having been printed from the plants themselves.

This "Flora of Austria" was produced at the expense of the Emperor at the Imperial Printing Office at Vienna, an establishment long famous for the beauty of its publications. As a very small number of copies were printed, and those only for presents, they are very rarely met with, and the present one is believed to be the only set for sale in this country.

GRAND WORK ON RUSSIA.

797 ANTIQUITIES of the RUSSIAN EMPIRE, published by special command of the Emperor Nicholas, the Text in the Russian language, comprising 515 BEAUTIFULLY COLOURED PLATES, on the FINEST GLAZED DRAWING PAPER, 7 vols. imperial folio and 4to. of Descriptions; together, 8 vols. hf. green morocco, backs full gilt, gilt tops, in the best style, £85. St. Petersburg

Vol. I.—Sacred Images, Crosses, and Church Ornaments 114 plates
" II.—Costumes of the Czaars 102 plates
" III.—Arms, Armour, Carriages, and Saddle 148 plates
" IV.—Portraits, and Costumes of the Czaars, Boyards, etc. 39 plates
" V.—Plate, Goldsmith's Work, and Jewels 73 plates
" VI.—Architecture, Civil and Religious, Furniture, etc. 40 plates

This magnificent Work is most gorgeous in execution, but inspection only can convey an adequate idea of the variety and beauty of the objects represented, or of the surprising delicacy with which the details are rendered, and of the effect realised by the choice materials of which they are composed. Most amateurs are acquainted with the celebrated work of Count Auguste Bastard, entitled "Peintures et Ornement des Manuscrits depuis le IV jusqu'au XVI Siècle" (See Brunet, Manuel du Libraire, tome I, p. 264, Paris, 1812), on which the French Government spent many millions of francs. The Russian work, although on a different subject, is quite equal to that in point of execution, and superior to it in the variety of its subjects, more especially from its containing so many rare examples executed during the 15th and 16th centuries, when decorative art had reached its highest refinement. The specimens of Byzantine workmanship are perfect marvels. Artists will find this work invaluable, especially Goldsmiths and those who turn their attention to the highest class of art. The work was printed for private distribution only, and on the title of each volume are the words—"By Supreme Command." Copies are extremely rare in this country, and are to be found only in a few private libraries, or in the Universities.

QUEEN ELIZABETH'S PRAYER BOOK.

- 1 A Book of Christian Prayers, collected out of the Ancient Writers and best learned in our time, with portrait of the Queen, and every page surrounded by very curious old woodcut borders by ALBERT DÜRER and HANS HOLBEIN, sm. 4to. in the original binding, gilt leaves, the sides richly tooled and gilt, fine large copy, RARE, £5. 15s

Yardley and Short, for the assignes of R. Daye, 1590
"I consider," says Dibdin in his Bibliomania, "ELIZABETH as a royal Bibliomaniac of transcendent fame. I see her in imagination taking an interest in the embellishments of the Prayer Book which goes under her own name and which is decorated with woodcut borders of considerable spirit and beauty, representing amongst other things some of the subjects of Holbein's Dance of Death." The Whole History of Christ, the Cardinal Virtues and their opposite Vices, &c.

- 2 A MIRROR for MAGISTRATES, edited, with Historical Notes, &c. by Haslewood, 3 vols. 4to. russia gilt, fine copy, £3. 15s (ONLY 150 COPIES PRINTED) 1813

The popularity of this work, and its influence on our National Poetry throughout the reigns of Elizabeth and James I. were very considerable. The excellent notes of the editor render this edition the most valuable and interesting.

- 1 AEROSTATION. HISTORICAL AND CHRONOLOGICAL COLLECTIONS ILLUSTRATIVE OF THE SCIENCE AND PRACTICE OF BALLOONING, with many hundred engravings; mounted and arranged on 4to. paper, forming in bulk about 6 vols. £10. 10s

This collection, which for extent and interest has not been equalled by any yet offered for sale, may indeed be said to exhaust the subject to which it refers. It includes an immense variety of Drawings, Prints, Woodcuts, Bills, Newspaper Narratives, Extracts from Magazines and other printed sources, Songs and other matter, much of which, from its ephemeral character, it would be perfectly hopeless to seek for elsewhere. But very slight allusion to the mass of interesting matter here assembled must suffice, viz.—History of Aërostation from the earliest experiments made in the Science by Cavallo in 1782—Various kinds of Flying Machines and Aërial Contrivances—Parachutes—Fragments of the Material used in making Balloons, including a piece of the original Mongolfier Balloon—Facetiae on the subject.—Aerial Voyagers: Lunardi (very interesting collections)—Green (collections of great extent and interest), Graham, Blanchard, Garnerin, Sadler; also other collections, more or less extensive, and nearly all of considerable interest, relative to Andreani, 1784, Arnold, Barrett, Bell, M.M. Charles et Robert, 1783, Chambers, Clark (Arctic Regions), Crosbie, 1785, Decker, 1785, Chevallier, 1784, Coxwell, Egg, Goulston, Gale, Gay Lussac, Gypson, Hampton, Harris, Lockwood, Livingstone, Lenox, Lesueur, Major Money, 1785, Mongolfier, 1783, Moret, 1784, Pilatre de Rosier, Peters, Poutevin, Pottain, Reagan, Tytler, Zanbaccari; also a considerable quantity of Miscellaneous Collections, Posting Bills, Hand Bills, &c.

- 2 ACKERMANN'S Cambridge University; History of its Colleges, Halls, and Public Buildings, with nearly 100 finely coloured engravings by Pugin, Mackenzie, Nash, &c. including Interiors and Costumes, 2 vols. impl. 4to. original copy in cloth, uncut, £1. 11s 6d (pub. £16.) 1815

- 3 ACKERMANN'S Oxford University; History of its Colleges, Halls, and Public Buildings, with nearly 100 finely coloured engravings by Pugin, Nash, &c. including the Interiors and Costumes, 2 vols. impl. 4to. original copy in bds. uncut, £1. 11s 6d (pub. £16.) 1814

613 New Testament, BOTH LATINE AND ENGLYSHE, each correspondent to the other, after the Vulgate text, commonly called S. Jeroms. Faithfully translated by MYLES COVERDALE, anno MCCCCXXXVIII, thick 4to. morocco, gilt leaves, £10. 10s. In Southwark, by J. Nicolson, 1538

First Edition of Bp. Coverdale's Translation of the New Testament, from the Latin Vulgate, the former one printed with the Old Testament in the year 1535, being made from the original Greek. The translator was most desirous to render it as close as possible, and his anxiety gave rise to some angular expressions, e.g. Matthew xxvi. fol. 40. "That in thys nyght before the Cock synge thou shalt denye me." Rhomanos xv. fol. 220. "Lest I shulde bylde uppon another man's fundamente." etc. For the blunders of the printer he remonstrated with Nicolson, and probably desired the copies bearing his name to be called in. Nicolson perhaps complied with the letter of his desire but not with the spirit of it; for he instantly put to press another edition exactly in the same form and type, only substituting the name of "Johan Hollybushe" for that of Coverdale, in the title, but still retaining Coverdale's name at the end of the dedication. The six preliminary leaves, a portion of the first leaf in Matthew, and the last leaf of Table are supplied in admirable facsimile. In other respects this is a perfect copy of one of the rarest books in the English language.

614 New Testament.—Erasmus' Paraphrase upon the Newe Testamente Englished by Udall, one vol. slightly wormed, otherwise a fine copy, 2 thick vols. folio, newly bound, calf gilt, with bands, scarce, £4. 4s
